Dear Mrs Mackenzie

AMATEUR RADIO

Thank you for your letter of 18 May 1989 concerning the above.

You may take this letter as written authorisation for Baillie James McLean, Deputy Chairman, Glasgow District Council, City Chambers, Glasgow to send the opening address of the Glasgow (Kentucky) Highland Games via amateur radio from the station of Mr John Sellars (GMØ BLX) and using the special event call sign GBØ GHG.

The following conditions will apply:

- (a) The station must be under the control of Mr John Sellars (GMØ BLX).
- (b) Initial and final contact must be between licensed radio amateurs.
- (c) No compensation may be directly or indirectly paid for this message.
- (d) This notice of variation will be effective for the duration of Baillie James McLean's address on 3 June 1989. (This includes the initial and final contact by a licensed radio amateur).

I hope that this letter meets your requirements and I wish you well for your future amateur operations.

Yours sincerely

RICHARD D GRIFFIN
